

Cécile Loiseau

Principal

Cécile Loiseau joined LGT European Capital (former ECFM) in 2007 as general legal counsel.

Prior to joining LGT European Capital, she was with Cleary Gottlieb Steen & Hamilton LLP in their New York, London and Paris offices, where she also acted as outside legal counsel to LGT European Capital.

Cécile earned Master degrees in law from the University of Paris and from Ann Arbor, Michigan. Since joining LGT European Capital, Cécile has been instrumental in all legal aspects of the private debt business, notably in fund structuring and in investment transactions. She is well respected throughout LGT European Capital and LGT Capital Partners as she combines broad legal knowledge with sound commercial judgement. In addition, Cécile is a strong team player and demonstrates a high level of commitment and dedication.
