

Ivan Vercoutère Managing Partner

Ivan Vercoutère (French) is a Managing Partner and co-founder of LGT Capital Partners in Pfäeffikon, Switzerland. He is responsible for the global Private Equity team and is a member of the Executive Committee. He also chairs the private equity Global Investment Committee.

Prior to joining the firm in 1998, Mr. Vercoutère was Vice President and a member of the investment committee of Pacific Corporate Group, Inc. (PCG), a California-based global private equity advisor and manager. While at PCG he was responsible for evaluating, performing due diligence on, negotiating and monitoring US and European-based private equity investments and portfolios on behalf of institutional investors, including The World Bank, CalPERS, the State of Oregon, the State of Rhode Island and PCG's fund of funds.

He holds a BSc in Finance from San Diego State University and serves on the advisory board of a number of private equity funds. He is fluent in English, French and Spanish.