

Dr. Christian Jung Executive Director

Christian Jung (Swiss) is an Executive Director at LGT Capital Partners Ltd. He is the Head of Risk Management at Alpha Generix, the alternative style premia team of LGT Capital Partners. He is also a veto member of the Alpha Generix Investment Committee.

Prior to joining the firm in 2011, he was a senior risk manager at Credit Suisse Asset Management, where he developed and implemented various risk measurement and monitoring frameworks for the bank's treasury and proprietary trading groups, as well as for liquid alternative multi-manager portfolios. At Credit Suisse, Mr. Jung gained several years of 'buy-side' research and due diligence experience, with a focus on risk management techniques/approaches and infrastructures for hedge funds globally. Further, he worked as a senior hedge fund analyst, senior investment risk manager and market risk manager. Before joining Credit Suisse in 2000, he was an ALM analyst at Zürcher Kantonalbank in Zürich.

Mr. Jung holds a PhD in Economics from the University of St. Gallen (HSG). He is an academic lecturer in 'Alternative Investment Strategies' at Zurich University and is fluent in English, German and French.
