

Rafael Silveira

Principal

Rafael Silveira (American/Brazilian) is a Principal at LGT Capital Partners in New York. Mr. Silveira is responsible for the operations in the USA.

Prior to joining the firm in 2019, he worked at AQR Capital Management, where he was a portfolio manager and researcher of systematic strategies. Earlier in his career, Mr. Silveira served as a solutions strategist for J.P. Morgan Asset Management, customizing portfolios for institutional investors, and as a senior quantitative analyst for the CIO group at Bank of America.

Mr. Silveira received a Ph.D. and an MA in Economics from the University of Pennsylvania in the U.S. and an MA and a BA in the same field from the University of Brasilia in Brazil. He is fluent in English and Portuguese.