

Thomas Kyriakoudis

Partner

Thomas Kyriakoudis (British) is a Partner at LGT Capital Partners in London, and he is responsible for Private Credit Solutions.

Prior to joining the firm in 2021, Mr. Kyriakoudis was a Founding Partner and CIO at Permira Credit, one of Europe's largest private credit managers. As one of the two founding partners, Mr. Kyriakoudis helped to build the business from the ground up to around EUR 10 billion in assets under management. During his 13 years at Permira, Mr. Kyriakoudis was a member of all Permira Credit Investment Committees, founded the structured credit business, was co-portfolio manager of the CLO business and led a significant number of direct lending transactions. Prior to Permira, Mr. Kyriakoudis worked on the structured credit trading desk of Morgan Stanley in London.

Mr. Kyriakoudis holds an MA in Business Administration from the London Business School and an MSC in Engineering from Cambridge University.