

Werner von Baum Managing Partner, CRO

Werner von Baum (German/Swiss) is a Managing Partner and the Chief Risk Officer at LGT Capital Partners in Pfaeffikon, Switzerland. He is a member of the Executive Committee and chairs the Risk- and the Compliance Committee.

Prior to joining the firm in 2005, Mr. von Baum was a managing director at HypoVereinsbank (HVB) in Munich, where he built up and led the Corporate Origination and High Yield Capital Markets business. Prior to joining HVB, he was with Bankers Trust in London, where he held various positions in marketing, structuring and trading of fixed income-, FX- and equity derivatives. Mr. von Baum started his career in 1989 at Salomon Brothers in New York and Frankfurt as an equity derivatives trader.

Mr. von Baum holds a BA in Economics and Business Management from the European Business School (Frankfurt, London, Paris). He is fluent in English, German and Spanish.